Local Golfers In State Walter Hagen Tourney

Jerry Conner, left, and Keith Ferguson, right, playing with Nelson and Lynn Jones captured third place in the local Walter Hagen Golf Tournament at Winton Country Club in Amherst and advanced into the state tournament played Monday and Tuesday of this week at Hot Springs.

Fifty-one teams were entered in the local tournament which netted the Amherst Count Chapter, American Cancer Society $5,100.00. Winners at the state tourney will meet December 4-5 at Disneyland in Orlando, Florida for the national title.

The following businessess and individuals have made it possible for this team to play in the 36 hole state tournament: Fidelity N ational Bank, Moses Motor Company, Webb's Tire Company, Appomattox Hardware Company, Inc., Jamerson Brother Trucking Company. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moser, Robert W. Carter Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Robinson.

Evens Over Odds 8 to 0

The Evens alumni team got the revenge they wanted and defeated the Odds 8 to 0 behind the running of Glen Doss who played very much like he did during his high school days.

The only disappointing thing was the size of the crowd, estimated to be about 600, that turned out Friday night for the second meeting of these two teams that played for the benefit of the ACHS athletic fund.

Those who came were treated to some excellent ball handling, handoffs, running, defense and several exciting pass plays. Al Sears and Mac Weaver were the field generals for the Evens who were coached by Mike George. It was Al who scored the only touchdown of the game from the two yard line after he directed his team down the field using Glen Doss and Mike McCormick to penetrate the Odds defense.

The Odds, with Bobby Layne at quarterback handing off to Plicky Williams and Joe Marshall, mounted several scoring threats during the contest but a good defensive effort by Earl Martin, Son Doss, Lee and Don Conner, Ray Tweedy and others managed to stop these drives. Perhaps the most exciting play of the game came on the opening play in the 4th quarter when Layne threw the bomb from about his own 5 yard line that was pulled in by Billy Austin at midfield who carried to the Evens 20 yard line before he was caught from behind. A similar play came with 2:35 left in the game when Mac Weaver found Mike McCormick open and hit him with a 30 yard pass with McCormick picking up another 20 yards before Coy Williamson pulled him down on the 15-yd line & prevented a touchdown.

Plicky Williams and Wayne McCormick were co-captains for the home team coached by Tommy O'Brien and Earl Martin and Sammy Page were the co-captains for George's team. Co-ordinator for the event was Coach Gordon Bragg who said, "It had to be a good game, they are my boys".

Raiders are practicing hard in preparation for their season opener here on Sept. 3 against the Gretna Hawks. Head Coach Larry Carter is very pleased with the interest as shown by the large number of boys (70) who came out this year.

Admission Fees Announced For ACHS Fall Sports

There will be a slight increase in admission fee for persons attending athletic events at Appomattox County High School this season, the first increase in many years.

Peggy Guill FRCC Ladies Golf Champion

Peggy Guill fired a 94 Saturday to go with her opening round of 90 for a 36-hole score of 184 to win the Falling River Country Club Ladies 1976 Golf Championship by five strokes over runner-up Joyce Jamerson.

Joyce Jamerson had rounds of 94-95 for a total of 189 to capture the second spot. Also in the championship flight were Mary Tolley, 97, 99 - 196; Ellen Jamerson, 98, 98 - 196; Mary McCraw, 99, 99 - 198.

Jane Lyons took First Flight honors with 100-94-194, four strokes ahead of Carol Cozart's 101, 97 - 198. Others in the First Flight were Joyce Smith, 104, 98 - 202; Margaret Shields, 104-110 - 214; Becky Moore, 108, 106 - 214; and Sudie Rowe, 106, 118 - 224.

Jackie Robinson was the Second Flight winner with rounds of 110-96-206, followed by Alice Reinertson, 114-119-233; Sally Helwig, 130, 119 - 249; and Betty Tolley, 131, 131-268.

Joyce Jamerson won a prize for using only 64 putts in the 36 hole tournament. The longest drives were hit by Margaret Shields and Mary McCraw and shots closest to the pin on the par three were made by Mary Tolley and Jackie Robinson.
